

Membership Application 2018

Artists on the Bluff is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of artists dedicated to promotion of the arts and encouragement of artists. Membership benefits include opportunities to participate in various shows including our annual Arts Festival, as well as other art exhibitions which our organization secures. Members also receive exposure on our website including a photo of your work and a link to your website. We hold monthly meetings throughout the year with free presentations from artists and others covering a wide range of subjects including various media and techniques, general art business, and marketing of art. The organization also acts as a network providing information and access to various workshops and classes.

Membership dues are $50 annually*
